

The Inaugural Brian Turley Award for Patient and Carer Involvement

Rachel Matthews
Jocelyn Cornwell

Theme Lead for Patient Involvement
Chief Executive Point of Care Foundation

Brian Turley

What we were looking for

- 1. Activity that has been designed and delivered with the input of patients and carers from as an early stage as possible
- 2. Attempts to involve and engage people who are less likely to be heard for example children and young people, people from minority communities including carers
- 3. Reflection and a desire to improve the practice of patient and carer involvement moving it away from a tick-box exercise to a two-way learning process

The prize

Convert the nomination to a visual image with graphic artist Sandra Howgate to promote patient and carer involvement

Judging Panel

- Fran Husson

Patient Adviser

- Jocelyn Cornwell

Chief Executive Point of Care Foundation

- Steven Towndrow

Patient and Public Involvement/Engagement and Communications Officer North Thames CLAHRC

- Stan Papoulias

Deputy Lead, Patient and Public Involvement Theme South
London CLAHRC

- Kandarp Thakkar

Chief Pharmacist Bedford Hospital NHS Trust

The PREPARE Team

Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust

Made a real difference to service provision. Feedback from patients is excellent and they felt empowered and included. Used robust research methods and the 4PI framework in the project which gave it structure